

Beware of Forbidden Practices

Lynette Engelbrecht

Ezekiel 11:21: But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” - Ephesians 5:11

There is a fine line between those who flow in the Spirit and those who flow in the power of the occult. We need to be mindful of Deuteronomy 18: ⁹ “When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰ There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, ¹¹ or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. ¹² For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. ¹³ You shall be blameless before the LORD your God. ¹⁴ For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not appointed such for you.

These practices in the eyes of God are regarded as being forbidden, immoral and detestable. In the eyes of God they are illegal to practice and forbidden to partake in.

Yet, these days, a lot of Christians are partaking in such practices, because they don't see any harm in a bit of fortune telling, or a bit of divination, or palm reading or speaking to the dead.

Christians deem it alright to partake and to practice such detestable things because they regard it as safe.

Firstly, as this article will show, and as a former practitioner of the occult, such things are VERY dangerous, for they allow an open doorway into the demonic realm. Demonic activity through the occult is no laughing matter. Demonic activity causes great destruction, and it causes massive damage and loss.

Secondly, these practices should be avoided SIMPLY BECAUSE IT IS DECLARED FORBIDDEN BY GOD – it doesn't matter if we think they are harmless or of no worth.

There is a fine line, so behold and take hold of this truth, that in this stirring of the supernatural that as God works so the enemy seeks to counterfeit. And this fine line between the two realms, one being manifested in the realm of God, and the other wrapped in the velvet cloak of magic, should be discerned, should be tested and should not be taken for granted.

We have to realize that a supernatural realm exists and what is “legal” and “true” is when we operate in the Holy Spirit, who provides us with the necessary truths, insights, discernments and guidance accordance to the gifts. This includes the gifts of prophecy.

The devil will always be the great counterfeiter, so he looks to counter the work of the Holy Spirit by the practices of divination, fortune telling and to practices such as talking the dead to gain knowledge, wisdom, understanding and guidance.

As spiritual beings, we are always open to the supernatural, but we are called to be conduits of the Holy Spirit and not to be conduits of demonic activity.

For indeed, the lands and God's people are perishing because of a lack of knowledge, for we operate in the practices of the occult thinking it is harmful, and so we come under the power and the mastery of the devil, which will lead to our destruction.

Let it be noted that occult practices such as hypnotherapy, palmistry, or whatever other form of divination or getting in touch with the supernatural outside the realms of God is FORBIDDEN, DANGEROUS AND MORALLY WRONG.

It is especially when it comes to the occult that we run the very serious risk of not just opening ourselves up to demonic influences, but demonic possession. We all deal daily with the onslaughts of demonic attacks, and so many times through our sins and iniquities we allow the devil legal ground to have a very real impact upon our lives. It is however when begin to dabble or even partake intentionally or even unintentionally in the occult that such onslaughts become a greater threat and a reality.

Let us now look at the various forms of occult, thus, forbidden practices:

FORTUNE-TELLING

Fortune-telling is the practice of predicting information about a person's life.

The scope of fortune-telling is in principle identical with the practice of divination. The difference is that divination is the term used for predictions considered part of a religious ritual, invoking deities or spirits, while the term fortune-telling implies a less serious or formal setting, even one of popular culture, where belief in occult workings behind the prediction is less prominent than the concept of suggestion, spiritual or practical advisory or affirmation.

Historically, fortune-telling grows out of folkloristic reception of Renaissance magic, specifically associated with gypsies (Wikipedia Encyclopedia Version).

Before I studied and became interested in the occult, I could not do any readings or see into a person's past, present or future. I had no gift of prediction or interpretation. The more I read about the occult and started practicing spells and the art of fortune-telling, I became better in the art and the "vision" became clearer. Mark 9:47: And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

After studying the art of fortune-telling and reading all the material I could find, it was as if the demons associated with that material transferred onto/into me and they provided me with the spiritual power and means for me to predict and see. Satan is the ruler of the earth and he and his demons are trying everything to lead people astray with lies and deceit. Revelation 12:9: And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Satan will give freely to anybody who wants to receive. But at a price!

I never realised that I was being drawn deeper into the occult and I could not see with my physical eyes what war was raging for my soul between Satan and God in the spiritual dimension. Once you move away from God, you can't be protected by God anymore. You walk that path alone. Satan can make your life such hell once you are in his grasp. He will cause you to end up depressed, scared and alone.

2000 years ago it was prophesied that there will be a time where people will be led astray by lies and deception. Those who issued the warning had the Spirit of God and were therefore the only ones who were spiritually legally allowed by the authority of the Lord to see into the future, unlike those who practice demonic divination. (Jeremiah 28:8: The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.)

God is the author and creator of everything. The devil has twisted everything that was pure and good and made it evil.

DIVINATION

Divination (from Latin divinare "to foresee, to be inspired by a god", related to divinus, divine) is the attempt to gain insight into a question or situation by way of a standardized process or ritual. It is an integral part of witchcraft and has been used in various forms for thousands of years.

Diviners ascertain their interpretations of how a querent proceed by reading signs, events, or omens, or through alleged contact with a supernatural agency, most often describe as an angel or a god though viewed by Christians, Jews and Muslims as a fallen angel or demon. Divination can be seen as a systematic method with which to organize what appear to be disjointed, random facets of existence such that they provide insight into a problem at hand.

If a distinction is to be made between divinations and fortune-telling, divination has a formal or ritual and often social character, usually in a religious context, as seen in traditional African medicine; while fortune-telling is a more everyday practice for personal purposes. Particular divination methods vary by culture and religion.

Acts 16:16: And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying.

It is not possible to cast any spells or do magic if you don't have the assistance of a demon. YOU don't have the power! Satan takes everything that God has created and he changes it into negative energy. The deeper you move into the world of the occult the more difficult it is to come out of it to lead a normal life.

Ephesians 6:12: For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Everybody will have to make a decision one day about whom you will serve. We will always end up serving a master. And that decision will give you everlasting life in heaven or torment in hell for eternity.

It is your choice. As simple as that.

Necromancy

Necromancy (Greek νεκρομαντεία nekromanteia, via Latin necromantia) is a form of magic in which the practitioner seeks to summon the spirit of a deceased person, either as an apparition or ghost, or to raise them bodily, for the purpose of divination.

Necromancy is even spoken of in the Bible. There is a familiar story in the Bible about Saul who went to a woman to call up the Samuel the prophet who has died. Samuel 28:
³ Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.⁴ Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at Gilboa. ⁵ When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. ⁶ And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the prophets.⁷ Then Saul said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor."⁸ So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please conduct a sã©ance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you."⁹ Then the woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"¹⁰ And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."¹¹ Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."¹² When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!"¹³ And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I saw a spirit ascending out of the earth."¹⁴ So he said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle." And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down. ¹⁵ Now Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do."¹⁶ Then Samuel said: "So why do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy? ¹⁷ And the LORD has done for Himself as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David. ¹⁸ Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day. ¹⁹ Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."²⁰ Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.²¹ And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me. ²² Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."²³ But he refused and said, "I will not eat." So his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. Then he arose from the ground and sat on the bed. ²⁴

Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it. ²⁵ So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

Saul became a bitter man due to sin and so he made more wrong decisions. In the end he committed suicide by falling into his own sword.

I use to make my own Ouija board by cutting out little blocks of paper. I packed them out and placed a glass in the middle. It was quite effective and sometimes very scary. I later learnt that you don't even need any object or special words to call on spirits. It is amazing how easy it is to get involved in the occult and still believe that you are not doing any harm. You can't see the impact of what you do because everything happens in the spiritual dimension.

I use to believe that it was spirits of dead people that you can summon and order about ...The truth is that it is not your dead relative or just a game to communicate with the dead. Demon spirits are real and very active and it is their responsibility to lead you astray and to ultimately get you to be damned to hell. (Ephesians 6:12: For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. 13: Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand).

Demons know us quite well and can appear in the same form as someone you knew and they know everything about you. It Genesis 3:14 the devil appeared as snake: And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

The devil knows we are gullible and he uses our weaknesses against us to make us fall into his trap. Hell was made for Lucifer and the fallen angels, not man. Matthew 25:41: Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

Since Lucifer was cast out of heaven because he rebelled against God's rules, he now for a time dwells among men to sow his seed of greed, lust, hate and death. Isaiah 14:13: How art thou fallen from heaven, O lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

Lucifer is very upset and he does not want to go to hell alone. He will do everything in his power to lead people astray and to make them forget about God's commandments that was given to Moses 2000 years ago. Those laws are fulfilled in Jesus and if we can follow the commandments by following Jesus, then only, can we lead lives that will be blessed by God.

PALMISTRY

Palmistry or chiromancy (also spelled cheiromancy, Greek cheir (χειρ), "hand"; manteia (μαντεία), "divination"), is the art of characterization and foretelling the future through the study of the palm, also known as palm reading, or chiromancy.

The practice is found all over the world, with numerous cultural variations. Those who practice chiromancy are generally called palmists, palm readers, hand readers, hand analysts, or chirologists.

Palmistry is the most common divination method. It requires no special equipment or props of any kind, can be practiced discreetly, and has traditionally been the first method taught to children by their mothers. Palmistry is combination of both chiromancy and chirology, or a belief that is based on the idea that certain parts of the body have an independent spirit.

The hands can be considered a simple chart of our lives. The left hand reveals the life we are born with while the right hand is what we make of that life. In a reading, the chovihani uses the lines, mounts, divisions, and type of hand to tell of a person's past, present, and future.

Once again, you cannot read anyone's future if you don't have the assistance of a demon. There are various types of ways in which people can seek advice on what the future holds. But why do you want to do that?

How mundane life would be if you knew what is going to happen to you and your loved ones. Life is a journey we all must travel and learn lessons between good and bad. What if you are not happy with those predictions at the end of the day?

2000 years ago Jesus' birth and ministry was prophesied by the prophets of old. These people were hand-picked by God as prophets. 1Samuel: 10:6: And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. Prophets provided guidance to those who have wandered of the path of righteousness or to help them to find their way again or to issue warnings of disasters as part of God's judgement. They operated in the Spirit of God, and not be demonic knowledge.

Right through the Bible prophets were consulted before going to war and in the way the people conducted themselves as a society. These people feared God and knew what He can do to them if they were disobedient.

Today in our modern society there is very few people who still fear God and who trust in Him and His direction. What will it take for people to realise that He is the One who is in control of our lives, and not us? Psalm 100:3: Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

God wants us to be happy and successful here on earth. It is we who cause our own demise by making our choices and decisions, according to free will.

If it was your last day on earth and you had to choose today whom you will serve, what will your choice be?

Joshua 24:15: And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

TAROT READING

Tarot reading revolves around the belief that the cards can be used to gain insight into the past, current and possible future situations of the subject (or Querent), i.e. cartomancy.

Some believe they are guided by a spiritual force, while others believe the cards help them tap into a collective unconscious or their own creative, brainstorming subconscious. The divinatory meanings of the cards commonly used today are derived mostly from cartomancer Jean-Baptiste Alliette who was also known as Etteilla.

(Regarding this graphic: The striking, fascinating artwork in this deck was created by the famous occultist and Golden Dawn member, Aleister Crowley).

I was given tarot cards from an unknown source and played with it on a regular basis. I found all the reading material I could find on what each card meant and so started my journey with the cards as my only friend. As time progressed I realised that I was getting quite good in prediction and my friends came for consultations regularly.

Soon the cards weren't needed and I had a "gift" of seeing without the use of cards. I used this new found power as a way of protecting myself from those who meant to harm me, be it emotionally or physically. As I met people, I knew what they wanted from me immediately before I had a conversation with them.

That is how the devil had a hold on me for years. He knew my weakness and he knew what he had to do to keep me close to him. So I was lost in a world that I was not strong enough to handle. I was broken down by the devil and ironically found refuge in him at the same time.

I had to learn the hard way that when you meddle with the supernatural or spiritual world that we don't understand, you open doorways that can invite entities from the dark world that has the power to change your life forever.

Demons have the power to destroy those that give the legal right.

When you go to a tarot card reader and you step through that door, you are open for a spiritual attack. You have also placed your family and yourself in grave danger.

I suggest that if you have gone to one or you still read your horoscope online or in magazines, you should repent and stop as soon as possible. It can be addictive just like gambling. Do you want to gamble with your soul or the souls of your friends and families?

ASTRAL TRAVEL

Astral projection (or astral travel) is an interpretation of out-of-body experience (OBE) that assumes the existence of an "astral body" separate from the physical body and capable of traveling outside it. Astral projection or travel denotes the astral body leaving the physical body to travel in the astral plane.

The idea of astral travel is rooted in common worldwide religious accounts of the afterlife in which the consciousnesses or soul's journey or "ascent" is described in such terms as "an...Out-of body experience, wherein the spiritual traveller leaves the physical body and travels in his/her subtle body (or dream body or astral body) into 'higher' realms."

It is therefore associated with near death experiences and is also frequently reported as spontaneously experienced in association with sleep and dreams, illness, surgical operations, drug experiences, sleep paralysis and forms of meditation.

It is also sometimes attempted for its own sake, or may be believed to be necessary to, or the result of, some forms of spiritual practice. It may involve "travel to higher realms" called astral planes but is commonly used to describe any sensation of being "out of the body" in the everyday world, even seeing one's body from outside or above.

It may be reported in the form of an apparitional experience, a supposed encounter with a doppelganger living person also seen somewhere else at the same time.

I have never astral travelled that I know of but had experiences of people that astral travelled to move objects around me. I know of those who have “travelled” to eavesdrop on conversations and prayers.

God has created us with a body, soul and spirit. One day our bodies will wither and die and become part of the dust and earth. Judgement will come and our souls will rise and will be judged to spend eternity in hell with Lucifer and his demons or in heaven with Jesus and his angels.

We cannot run around and do what we want. There is rules according to God and if we follow the Lord’s order, we will be blessed and have abundance as God promised in His word. Psalm 9:17: The wicked shall be turned into hell and all the nations that forget God.

The truth is we will all face death one day. Your soul will leave your body and will be judged on the coming of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. We have been placed here to make choices and to live a full life that will one day echo in eternity.

God has given each one of us a soul and we have to take care of it. God does not want a Bride full of blemishes and sin. God does not understand sin because He is pure and holy.

MEDITATION

Meditation refers to any of a family of practices in which the practitioner trains his or her mind or self-induces a mode of consciousness in order to realize some benefit.

Meditation is generally an internal, personal practice and done without any external involvement, except perhaps prayer beads to count prayers, though many practitioners of meditation may rely on external objects such as candle flames as points on which to focus their attention as an aid to the process. Meditation often involves invoking or cultivating a feeling or internal state, such as compassion, or attending to a specific focal point. The term can refer to the state itself, as well as to practices or techniques employed to cultivate the state.

There are dozens or more specific styles of meditation practice. People may mean different things when they use the word, 'meditation'. Meditation has been practiced since antiquity as a component of numerous religious traditions, especially, in Western countries, in monastic settings. In the Eastern spiritual traditions such as Hinduism and Buddhism, meditation is more commonly a practice engaged in by many if not most believers.

I personally don't think to meditate is a good thing if you are not filled with the Holy Spirit. If you are not filled with the Holy Spirit, you are in danger of opening yourself to any possible spirit to enter, and that could be dangerous.

There is a very direct and clear warning in Matthew that describes a man who is being delivered from a demon. When the demon leaves, the body is empty and has to be filled by the Holy Spirit. If it is not filled with the Holy Spirit, then that demon will return to its original place – or “home- and will bring seven stronger demons with it. Matthew 12:43: When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. 44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

It is clear that we need to be filled with the Holy Spirit and make sure our lives are in order before God. If you want to mess around with other things that you don't understand, you will get hurt. We should only meditate on God's Word and His commandments and only communicate to Him on a spiritual level. Joshua 1:8: This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

HYPNOSIS

Hypnosis is a mental state (according to "state theory") or imaginative role-enactment (according to "non-state theory"). It is usually induced by a procedure known as a hypnotic induction, which is commonly composed of a long series of preliminary instructions and suggestions. Hypnotic suggestions may be delivered by a hypnotist in the presence of the subject, or may be self-administered ("self-suggestion" or "autosuggestion"). The use of hypnotism for therapeutic purposes is referred to as "hypnotherapy", while its use as a form of entertainment for an audience is known as "stage hypnosis".

The words hypnosis and hypnotism both derive from the term neuro-hypnotism (nervous sleep) coined by the Scottish surgeon James Braid around 1841. Braid based his practice on that developed by Franz Mesmer and his followers ("Mesmerism" or "animal magnetism"), but differed in his theory as to how the procedure worked.

Contrary to a popular misconception – that hypnosis is a form of unconsciousness resembling sleep – contemporary research suggests that hypnotic subjects are fully awake and are focusing attention, with a corresponding decrease in their peripheral awareness. Subjects also show an increased response to suggestions. In the first book on the subject, Neurypnology (1843), Braid described "hypnotism" as a state of physical relaxation accompanied and induced by mental concentration ("abstraction").

I hypnotised a few of my friends when I was very young. I practised hypnosis to tap into their subconscious minds. The subconscious is a very powerful component of your body and I was amazed at what was possible when the subconscious was given inot my control. You can make people do whatever you want and that is where the danger lies - especially when it comes to hypnotism.

If you wanted to experience something new and exciting, the subconscious was the way to get access. You can fly, drive Formula One cars, or go back into your mother's womb - whatever you can think of was possible when you were under hypnosis.

BUT there is a huge risk when you go under hypnosis! You open a doorway for demons to enter...

You are very vulnerable at that moment. You place your trust and your body into that person's hand. You basically go into a sleep state and your subconscious gets "trapped". Your subconscious never sleeps and is always active. That is where dreams are born. It is a supernatural space full of reality and fantasy. If you have exposed yourself to horror movies, the images are stored into your subconscious resulting in possible nightmares.

The best advice I can give is to not go for hypnotic therapy or have anything to do with hypnosis.

If you have been hurt in your past, God and the Holy Spirit will be able to help you with your healing process.

MAGICK

Magick is an Early Modern English spelling for magic, used in works such as the 1651 translation of De Occulta Philosophia, Three Books of Occult Philosophy, or Of Magick. The British occultist Aleister Crowley, chose the spelling to differentiate the occult from stage magic and defined it as "the Science and Art of causing Change to occur in conformity with Will", including both "mundane" acts of will as well as ritual magic. Crowley claimed that "it is theoretically possible to cause in any object any change of which that object is capable by nature". John Symonds and Kenneth Grant attach a deeper occult significance to this preference.

Crowley saw magick as the essential method for a person to reach true understanding of the self and to act according to one's True Will, which he saw as the reconciliation "between freewill and destiny."

Since the time of Crowley's writing about magick, many different spiritual and occult traditions have adopted the K spelling, but some have redefined what it means to some degree. For some modern occultists, it refers strictly to paranormal magic, which involves influencing events and physical phenomena by supernatural, mystical, or paranormal means.

These days magic has become a "game" of sorts, where people are being entertained by magic tricks. Indeed, such trickery is not magic in the truest sense, but mere trickery or the illusion created by the hand and eye. True magic deals with the supernatural, with the occult and with the power of demons. This is why you get illusionists but you also get true sorcerers and magicians.

For the true magicians and sorcerers, magic is no game. Even today there are such magicians and sorcerers who operate and display their "powers" in public and on stage, with the audience mesmerised by their amazing feats. The fact is, such displays are an open display of demonic power and the occult is laid bare for all the witness.

This is the same when it comes to those who are dabbling in the occult. They perform public sessions of hypnotherapy or séances. It is true that there are many people out there who are pretenders, just as there are many of the Christian faith to profess having prophetic abilities. These pretenders are false and operate not in the occult, but uses tricks and illusions.

There are many spiritists and mediums and palm readers who are deceiving people because they are operating out of the flesh and the imagination. It is however those who operate in the occult and by the power of a demon, and who glorify Satan in the public, who are truly walking in the FORBIDDEN.

There is nothing entertaining about those who walk in the power of the dark lord or in the arts of the FORBIDDEN, for they bring Satan the glory and allow for demons to display their power and to influence people.

Through the magic arts, including hypnotherapy, Satan finds a doorway through which he can work and operate, with his main purpose to steal and to destroy.

I thank God that I survived the occult and have the privilege to warn people about the existing and very real dangers of the occult. The occult is a vast field and it is easy to get lured into its traps. I can write pages on the different sources through which the occult works, such as music, movies, books and the internet.

Life is hard and can be cruel sometimes. When we have gone through trauma in our lives it is easy to grab hold of the darkness that has already enfolded you. It feels like it can protect you and that you belong there. That is what Satan wants you to believe. If he can get control of your mind then you are already trapped. But it is never too late. You can always get out!

It is a well-known fact that the followers of Lucifer are in a constant state of fear and in competition to see who are the most powerful. The best and safest place to be is a leader of a coven or High Priest which you can only reach by having the most demons inside of you and have done unimaginable sacrifices to Lucifer. Disobedience is not tolerated and you will be punished with all kinds of rituals and ultimately death.

Satan has a way of luring the most weak and vulnerable into his ranks by offering gifts of friendship, fame, money and power. Once you have accepted these gifts, it is too late. Satanists are normal people like you and me. They dress normal, talk normal and are very pleasant and well educated people. The highest ranked Satanist will be found in top positions in business, and even in the church.

Most followers of the dark lord find it very difficult to leave and they are threatened with the death of their families and friends if they try to do so.

I did spells and sent curses to people because I felt hurt and wanted to hurt them back. The Bible warns us that our tongues are very powerful and basically anything you put your belief and trust in will have power. We should rather bless and not curse. Your curses can turn around and come back to you seven-fold.

There is no future in serving Satan and following after the darkness of the world. Satan has already been defeated and one day he will be thrown into the fires of hell for eternity. Let's choose life and not death. Deuteronomy 30:19: I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life that both thou and thy seed may live.

Jesus Christ of Nazareth will not scold you, mock you, threaten you, harm you, degrade you, abuse you, lie to you, molest you, rape you, hit you, drug you, cheat on you, spread rumours about you, leave you or forsake you. He loves YOU. He died for YOU so that you can everlasting life.

If you are stuck in the occult or any form of bondage that has made your life hell and you have lost all hope and feel sad and alone and a failure and don't know how to get out, YOU CAN! Does not matter what you have done or what has been done unto you, there is a way out, there is forgiveness, there is freedom, there is a new and better life that can be yours.

You are special and you were made by God. You do have a purpose. You are here for a reason. Don't give up. Ask Jesus the King of kings to lead you in all His truth and to forgive you. It is that easy. He can do all things. You only have to ask.

God is our hope, deliverance, love and freedom.

God is a jealous God and He loves us so much that He gave His only Son to die on a cross and suffer for each one of us.

Regarding the crucifixion, we at times forget what Jesus endured, but this was not an act of cruelty by the Father, but an act of love for Jesus went through this pain because His love for us is greater than any earthly torment.

At the time crucifixion was the "worst" death. Only the worst criminals condemned to be crucified. Yet it was even more dreadful for Jesus, unlike other criminals condemned to death by crucifixion, Jesus was to be nailed to the cross by His hands and feet. Each nail was 6 to 8 inches long. The nails were driven into His wrist. Not into His palms as is commonly portrayed.

There's a tendon in the wrist that extends to the shoulder. The Roman guards knew that when the nails were being hammered into the wrist, that tendon would tear and break, forcing Jesus to use His back muscles to support himself so that He could breathe. Both of His feet were nailed together. Thus He was forced to support Himself on the single nail that impaled His feet to the cross. Jesus could not support himself with His legs because of the pain, so He was forced to alternate between arching His back then using his legs just to continue to breathe. Imagine the struggle, the pain, the suffering, the courage. Jesus endured this reality for over 3 hours.

A few minutes before He died, Jesus stopped bleeding. He was simply pouring water from his wounds. From common images, we see wounds to His hands and feet and even the spear wound to His side... But do we realize His wounds were actually made in his body.

A hammer driving large nails through the wrist, the feet overlapped and an even large nail hammered through the arches, then a Roman guard piercing His side with a spear. But before the nails and the spear, Jesus was whipped and beaten. The whipping was so severe that it tore the flesh from His body. The beating so horrific that His face was torn and his beard ripped from His face.

The crown of thorns cut deeply into His scalp. Most men would not have survived this torture.

He had no more blood to bleed out, only water poured from His wounds. The human adult body contains about 3.5 litres (just less than a gallon) of blood.

Jesus poured all 3.5 litres of his blood; He had three nails hammered into His members; a crown of thorns on His head and, beyond that, a Roman soldier who stabbed a spear into His chest.

All these without mentioning the humiliation He passed after carrying His own cross for almost 2 kilometres, while the crowd spat in his face and threw stones (the cross was almost 30kg of weight, only for its higher part, where His hands were nailed).

It seems that people forget so easily that God himself came down from heaven to become a man, to feel pain, love, sadness and ultimately death just like we do. He knows how you feel and what you are going through. He is the healer. He is our only hope for eternal life.

God wants us to be happy and to spend eternity with Him where there are no more tears, no more pain, no more death and no more night. Doesn't that sound worth it?

Will you be able to die for someone you don't know or has ill-treated you? That is true love...
